NEWS RELEASE

January 13, 2006

Cornerstone Vice President Elected to PRSA Board of Directors

The Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) has elected Anne H. Lewis, APR, to delegate-at-large for the 2006 PRSA Assembly. Lewis is vice president of public relations at Cornerstone, a full-service marketing and organizational communications firm located in Baltimore.

Lewis is one of five delegates recently elected to the PRSA Board of Directors. Delegates are charged with providing national representation to two constituent groups – non-U.S. members and members who live outside a chapter area.

Lewis is a seasoned marketing and communications professional with experience on corporate staffs, in agencies and as a consultant. She joined Cornerstone in 2004. Prior to that, she owned her own Minnesota public relations firm, Sterling Executive Counselors, Inc. Lewis also previously served in leadership roles in public relations firms in Minnesota and Buffalo, N.Y.

In addition to her PRSA affiliation, Lewis serves on the University of Maryland School of Social Work Advisory Board, the National Aquarium in Baltimore Marketing Committee and the Alworth Scholarship Fund Board of Trustees.

The Public Relations Society of America is the world's largest organization for public relations professionals. The Society has more than 28,000 professional and student members and is organized into 112 chapters nationwide.
